

Your Offer Was Accepted ⇒ Now What?

mobilitymatters' specializes in taking the guess work out of moving your valued employees to a new area. We provide comprehensive coordination and design of a move from (pre-decision to completion), in order to ensure a successful transition to the new location with your new employee ready to start on day one.

A new hire relocation requires special attention to make your companies first impression a good one. Without expert advice and planning, key employees may reject the offer, budgets will be strained, and productivity may be delayed.

There exists a magnitude of details to be managed during a move. Helping to ease their burden during the transition is our top priority. Our job is to make your job easier and to eliminate the stress that relocation presents to all employees.

We will work closely with you to assess your needs and to tailor a relocation program designed specifically for the circumstances involved with your new hire.

Through a proven strategic planning process, we will help you:

- Develop cost estimates
- Create special relocation move policies
- Source proven provider support in both the departure and destination locations
- Deliver individual customized support to encourage employees to accept the move

Some of the steps that mobilitymatters has taken to assist our clients during these challenging times include:

- Custom program for move of just one employee
- Take advantage of tax-exempt home sale
- Policy and program development
- Budget planning and advisement
- Location information and area tours
